

L has started to dress himself independently

S is doing well with her bedtime routine

S had a very positive family contact

T was able to identify what was making him angry, and what would help the situation

S joined a choir group and helped to look after the younger members

K managed to stick to routines during the Christmas period

S played nicely with other young people

T thanked everyone for their presents unprompted

DECEMBER

2022